Privacy Statement

Effective Date: 01/14/15

1. Summary. The United Way of Allegheny County (“we”) understands that online privacy is important, and we are committed to protecting your privacy. Please read this Privacy Statement before using any of the websites operating under the United Way of Allegheny County name (each a “Site,” and together they are the “Sites”). This Privacy Statement applies to all Sites. This Privacy Statement applies only to information collected directly through the Sites and does not address our practices related to information collected from you other than directly through or from the Sites, such as by telephone, fax, postal mail, personal delivery or other offline means or media.

When you access or use the Sites, your information, including some personal information, will be collected, transferred, processed, stored, and disclosed in accordance with this Privacy Statement. We will not sell, share, or rent information collected by the Sites to others, other than as disclosed in this Privacy Statement. We collect information from our users at several different points on our Sites because we believe that knowing more about you will enable us to serve you better by personalizing the content and services we can offer.

This Privacy Statement is part of and incorporated into the Terms of Use governing your use of the Sites. Parts of the Terms of Use affect this Privacy Statement, so unless you have already done so, please review the Terms prior to using the Sites. By accessing or registering for an account with any of the Sites, you expressly consent to the collection, transfer, use, processing, and storage of your information, including personal information, as described in this Privacy Statement. You can determine if any changes were made to this Privacy Statement by noting the date that the Privacy Statement was last updated. Your continued use of the Sites after any updates to the Privacy Statement are posted means that you accept the revised Privacy Statement.

2. Our Information Collection Practices

2.1 General. When you visit the Site, you can browse without submitting any personal information about yourself. However, we may automatically receive and record non-personal information on our server logs from your browser. In some areas of the Sites (for example, if you create an account, donate, or sign up to volunteer), we may collect some personally identifiable information from you, including your full name, a user name and password, email address, age range or birth date, and home ZIP code (for U.S. residents only). We collect your age range or birth date to maintain the privacy of those under 13 and to provide us with demographic information about our users, which allows us to better personalize our Sites. In addition, you can choose to supply optional information, including your areas of interest related to your community’s health and human service needs, so that we can help give you the information you desire.

2.2 Automatically Collected Information. Similar to other websites, we may collect some information automatically and store it in log files through the use of “cookies” and other tracking mechanisms. This information is non-personal and does not identify you. The information collected may include, but is not limited to: your IP address, browser type and language, referring and exit pages and URLs, search engine used, other browser history, platform type, number of clicks, landing pages, cookie information, the pages you requested and viewed, the amount of time spent on particular pages, and the date and time of your visit. We collect this non-personally identifiable information in order to help diagnose problems with our servers and to administer the Site. Your IP address is also used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information. We may also use cookies, Clear GIFs, and log file information to: (a) store information so that you will not have to re-enter it during your visit or the next time you visit the Site; (b) monitor aggregate metrics such as total number of visitors, pages viewed, etc.; and (c) track entries, submissions and status in any interactive portions of the Site.

2.3 Cookies. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on a user's computer for record-keeping purposes. Like most websites, United Way of Allegheny County and our third-party analytics providers use cookies on the Sites to record information about your activities on the Sites and to 'remember' you when you return to them. Some cookies remain on your computer until you delete them, while others, like session ID cookies, expire when you close your browser. You may set your browser settings to attempt to reject cookies, and you may still use the Sites, but your ability to use some functionality and areas of the Sites may be limited. See Section 4 (Online Tracking and Your Choices) for more information on how the Sites may respond to your browser settings. We do not control the use of cookies by third parties. See Section 2.5 (Third Party Providers) and review the privacy policies of each of the third party advertising and analytics providers for more information on third party cookie.

2.4 Pixels. Pixels are tiny graphics that are used to track the online movements of web users. Unlike cookies, which are stored on a user's computer hard drive, pixels are small graphics that are embedded invisibly on web pages or in HTML-based emails. We and our third party providers may place pixels on our Sites that track what other websites you visit (both before and after visiting a Site), and which features or content on the Site are popular. We use information obtained from pixels to help us improve our Sites.

2.5 Third Party Providers. We use third party providers, such as Google Analytics, to help us improve the Sites and collect information about the usage and users of our Sites, including demographic and interest-level information. Our analytics providers use cookies and Clear GIFs in order to collect demographic and interest-level information and usage information from users that visit the Sites, including but not limited to information about the pages where users enter and exit the Site and what pages users view and visit on the Sites. Cookies and Clear GIFs allow analytics providers to recognize a user when a user visits the Sites, but also when a user visits other websites. Our analytics providers use the information they collect from the Sites and other websites to profile users in order to share information about users with us and other web site operators. For more information regarding Google's use of cookies and collection and use of information see the Google Privacy Policy. If you would like to opt out of Google Analytics tracking, please download and install the Google Analytics Opt-Out Browser Ad-On, which is available at the following link: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>. We may link information we receive from our analytics partners with other information we have collected through the Site, including personal information. In addition, we may obtain data from third parties who sell consumer data and blend that data with information we have obtained through the Site, from our third party analytics providers, or otherwise. We use the blended information consistently with this Privacy Statement, and generally for our own internal business, marketing and development purposes.

2.6 Online Pledges and Campaigns; Volunteering. We request specific, personal information from donors when they desire to make a charitable donation or pledge online through the Sites. In order to make a contribution, a donor must provide information related to the transaction such as an address for billing and gift acknowledgment, pledge amount, recipient choice information and payment information. We provide agencies with information on the donors that have designated a gift to them. If you choose to donate your time and sign-up online to volunteer, information about demographics, your volunteering areas of interest and contact information will be collected. This information will be used to develop statistics on volunteer activity, for marketing and promotional purposes, to comply with applicable laws related to our volunteer activities (e.g., regarding background checks for volunteers working with children, taxes, etc.), as well as for other general internal purposes.

2.7 Company Campaigns. When a company uses online pledging, we provide online campaign reports to the company to give it the information necessary to properly manage its campaign. A company may request, and we will provide, details about employee gifts from that company. For purposes of completing payroll deduction withholdings, we will provide the company with all relevant and necessary information required for it to establish payroll deduction withholdings in keeping with the donor's expressed desire to make a gift to us using payroll deduction.

2.8 Social Media, Comments, and User Content. Some Sites contain a social media component in which members may share fundraising goals, upload and post user-generated content, connect with other members through blog posts and comments, view activity feeds of actions taken by fellow users, and/or invite others to join them through other social media platforms. In joining those Sites, you will be asked to create an account and your individual member profile page will display your chosen name, a profile picture (should you choose to upload one), photo albums and other content uploaded by you. Information you post on the Site is not private and can be accessed or viewed by other people. Unless you choose to donate anonymously, publicly viewable information (e.g., on an activity feed) may also include the amount that you and your contributors, separately and together, have pledged towards your personal campaign.

Please refer to the Terms of Use for further detail concerning user content and other materials submitted to the Sites. United Way of Allegheny County assumes no liability for the accuracy of user content, no duty to update or correct such information, and no liability for those communications that may arise under copyright, libel, privacy, obscenity or other laws.

3. Our Information Sharing Practices. We do not sell or rent any of your personal information to third parties for marketing purposes. However, we may disclose your information to an affiliated entity or organization, other United Ways, agents, service providers, and recipient organizations indicated in your pledges. For information about the use of information by agents and service providers, see Section 2.5 (Third Party Providers). We reserve the right to disclose all information collected via the Sites, internally or by third parties, for any lawful purpose or to prevent harm to us or others. For example and without limitation, in our discretion we may disclose information to government regulators, law enforcement authorities or alleged victims of identity theft. If we should ever file for bankruptcy or engage in a business transaction with another organization, such as a merger, or if we purchase, sell or reorganize all or a part of our organization or assets, we may disclose your personal information, including to prospective or actual purchases in connection with any of those transactions.

4. Online Tracking and Your Choices. As discussed above in the "Our Information Collection Practices" section, we track website usage information through the use of cookies and other tracking mechanisms. We do not observe your browser settings and, even if you select "Do Not Track" options provided by your browser, the Sites will still attempt to, and may be successful at, placing cookies and collecting information from your browser. You may still manage the settings on your browser or mobile device and delete and disable cookies and other tracking or recording tools. Doing so may impact your experience using the Sites and may make certain features and areas unavailable to you. We do not control third party advertising and analytics providers. You should review their privacy policies for information about whether they honor the “Do Not Track” browser signal. For information about opting-out from Google Analytics tracking, review their privacy policy referenced in Section 2.5 (Third Party Providers). Many advertising companies are also members of the NAI or DAA and provide opt-outs on those industry pages at www.networkadvertising.org/choices and www.aboutads.info/choices.

5. Information Security Practices. United Way of Allegheny County uses reasonable efforts to protect our users’ information. All pledge transactions occur on secure pages of the site using SSL technology, which is the generally accepted standard for secure web transactions. We use a third party payment processor for all pledge transactions, and we do not store any credit card information. However, we cannot guarantee that your personally identifiable information will never be disclosed in ways not otherwise described in this Privacy Statement. For example, we may be required to disclose personal information to the government or third parties under certain circumstances, third parties may unlawfully intercept or access transmissions or private communications, or users may abuse or misuse personal information that they collect from the Sites. No transmission of data over the internet can be 100% secure.

6.1 Opt-Out Right. Except as necessary for us to provide the services, information or products that you request, you may opt-out of having your personally identifiable information (that has been voluntarily provided to us through the use of a Site) retained by us, used by us for secondary purposes, or disclosed by us to third parties. This right does not apply to the collection of non-personal information that we collect automatically (see Sections 2.2 (Automatically Collected Information) and 2.3 (Cookies)). In addition, you can opt-out from receiving commercial or solicitation emails from us by clicking the “Unsubscribe” link at the bottom of any email.

6.2 Accessing and Updating Your Personal Information. If your personal information changes or if you would like to cancel your Site account (for example, your account as described in Section 2.8), you may make those changes by contacting us at: 412.261.6010. If you have any questions about this Privacy Statement or matters that relate to it, you may contact us by sending an email to: george.pashel@uwac.org.

6.3 Protecting the Privacy of Children Under 13. As a general rule, United Way of Allegheny County does not collect information from anyone under the age of 13 and we will not accept registrations by people under that age. However, because we cannot ensure that our visitors will enter their registration information truthfully, we cannot reasonably stop all children under 13 from using our services.

7. Links to Other Websites. The Sites contain links to other websites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices, terms of use or content of other websites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our Sites and to read the privacy statements of each and every website that collects personally identifiable information. This Privacy Statement applies solely to
