“Be My Neighbor Day” honors Fred Rogers by celebrating family volunteerism

United Way encourages local families to have fun while helping neighbors

Pittsburgh, Pa. (Feb. 25, 2016) – United Way of Southwestern PA, in partnership with The Fred Rogers Company and WQED, presents its annual “Be My Neighbor Day.” On Saturday, March 19, 2016, hundreds of families will help their neighbors by participating in fun, free volunteer activities at four local YMCAs.

“Fred Rogers dedicated his life to helping children, so we are proud to partner with The Fred Rogers Company and WQED to teach the importance of volunteerism to families in our region,” said Lois Mufuka Martin, chief volunteer engagement officer, United Way of Southwestern PA. “Joining local families together to have fun and do good makes our entire community stronger.”

A celebration of family volunteerism in the spirit of Fred Rogers, “Be My Neighbor Day” activities will support United Way’s core focus areas, including helping local kids in need, struggling families, senior citizens and people with disabilities.

“Be My Neighbor Day reinforces the values of kindness, caring, and gratefulness that are at the core of Daniel Tiger’s Neighborhood,” said Paul Siefken, vice president, broadcast and digital media for The Fred Rogers Company. “A day like this can bring family members closer and can spark meaningful discussions about important personal and social issues.”

“Be My Neighbor Day” volunteer activities include: planting sunflower seeds for neighbors; assembling test-taking kits for local middle school students; learning about the importance of physical activity; decorating a recycled tshirt to be sewn into a blanket for a local vet; creating greeting cards to brighten the day of a senior; supporting struggling families by donating unopened packages of diapers; and more. Attendees can also meet Daniel Tiger of the PBS series Daniel Tiger’s Neighborhood.

“WQED is proud to partner with The Fred Rogers Company and United Way to celebrate family volunteerism through Be My Neighbor Day,” said Deborah L. Acklin, president and CEO of WQED Multimedia. “Fred Rogers’ legacy of neighborliness and helping others is being passed to new generations, and his work continues to impact the world.”

Those interested in participating on Saturday, March 19, are encouraged to visit uwswpa.org/events/attend-be-my-neighbor-day for more information and register at one of four locations: Homewood Brushton YMCA (9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.); Western Area YMCA (9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.); Baierl YMCA (2 p.m. – 4 p.m.); Sampson Family YMCA (2 p.m. – 4 p.m.).
