When you give to United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania, you fight for the health, education, financial stability and basic needs of every member of our community.

“Kids have so much potential and promise. Encouragement is really important so they don’t give up on their education. Having someone care really can make all the difference. And it’s really something to be a part of it.”

-Gina, United Way’s Be a Middle School Mentor participant