Southwest PA Says NO MORE
United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania, in partnership with FISA Foundation and The Heinz Endowments, is investing in preventing and ending domestic and sexual violence.

MEASURABLE IMPACT

Southwest PA Says NO MORE works with a variety of organizations to address the alarming rates of abuse — 1 in 3 U.S. girls report physical, emotional or verbal abuse from a partner.

The goals are to prevent the consequences of domestic violence and sexual assault by focusing on prevention and making it easier for individuals and organizations to take action to stop gender-based violence.

THIS EDUCATION-BASED CAMPAIGN IS UNITING OUR COMMUNITY TO SAY ENOUGH IS ENOUGH. SOUTHWEST PA SAYS NO MORE WORKS TO CREATE LASTING CHANGE ACROSS:

- Schools & Colleges: By promoting conversations about domestic violence and sexual assault prevention to young people
- Individuals: By activating men to take action and be part of the solution
- Sports & Athletics: By educating and recruiting coaches to influence young athletes to engage in respectful relationships through Coaching Boys Into Men, a proven, nationally replicated curriculum
- Employers & The Workplace: By driving workplace policies that make it clear that abusive behaviors will not be tolerated

nearly 4,000
community members signed the Father’s Day Pledge to take personal ownership of preventing domestic and sexual violence

45
CEOs representing over 425,000 employees attended a breakfast to discuss strategies to support domestic violence prevention efforts as leaders in our community

1.1 million
impressions generated by media coverage

United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania serves Allegheny, Butler, Westmoreland, Fayette & Southern Armstrong Counties