

Leadership Opportunities

Leadership that starts with you.

Whether you're looking to have a strong voice or simply want to be more involved, United Way has leadership opportunities that can be tailored to your interests.

Leadership Opportunities

When you choose to become a United Way leader, you join a team of committed problem-solvers taking on our region's toughest human service challenges. With a passion to make the whole community stronger, our leaders are volunteers, committee members, board members, corporate partners and donors who champion our work.

Take an active role in how your dollars go to work in the community. Have a seat at the table and create positive change by:

Volunteering based on your interests

- Volunteer at select events
- Help identify and connect new donors
- Join a Leadership team or committee for a particular area of work

Being part of solving our region's most critical issues

- Learn more about pressing human service issues facing our community
- Guide United Way's strategic approach to solving community issues
- Advocate for change by influencing public policy

Networking

- Forge relationships with like-minded, influential community leaders
- Be a part of exclusive special events (access changes depending on giving level)

Becoming a committee or initiative lead can be a highly satisfying experience. Enjoy getting closer to the work and the people we serve. See first-hand how your money makes a difference to the lives of people in need.

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.
